

PLEASE force wireless companies to offer number portability. I get terrible service with my current provider and a major reason I hesitate to switch are the costs I will incur in getting a new number (printing costs). Lack of number portability prevents fair competition in the wireless market!